

(DRAFT AS OF MARCH 6, 2018)

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN THE COMMISSION ON DECOLONIZATION AND THE UNIVERSITY OF GUAM SCHOOL OF BUSINESS AND PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION REGIONAL CENTER FOR PUBLIC POLICY

This Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) is made between the Commission on Decolonization (COD), whose address is Ricardo J. Bordallo Governor's Complex Adelup, Guam 96932 and the University of Guam, School of Business and Public Administration Regional Center for Public (UOG RCPP) UOG Station, Mangilao, Guam 96913, hereafter referred to collectively as the "parties."

WHEREAS, COD is operating as a single unit composed of 11 volunteer members, 1 executive director, and a support staff of 1;

WHEREAS, during a regular meeting held January 23, 2018, the COD approved the MOU with no objections.

WHEREAS, this award is made pursuant by the Department of Interior Technical Assistance Program Grant to COD, of which the Commission has decided to reserve up to $120,000 for a self-determination study.

WHEREAS, the RCPP has the expertise, resources and skills to carry out specific statistical and research tasks necessary to provide COD with a self-determination study.

WHEREAS, COD retains the right to approve all subcontractors and scholars associated with the study, and funds subcontracted by RCPP may not exceed $30,000.

WHEREAS, $60,000 or half of the MOU total shall be paid upon the signing of this memorandum. The remaining balance shall be paid to RCPP upon COD's receipt of deliverables.

NOW THEREFORE the parties in consideration of mutual covenants hereinafter set forth, agree as follows:

1. The UOG RCPP agrees to do the following:

The RCPP Director will organize appropriate faculty, staff, students, or non-UOG affiliates (upon approval of COD) who will provide support in carrying out the 'Self-

30 Determination Study'. This study is to support COD's mission to develop an effective
31 decolonization education campaign. RCPP will provide effective resources and services, 32 which include but are not limited to administrative support, legal counsel, research, and 33 professional services. In particular, RCPP will provide the following services in the 34 development of the self-determination study:

35 a. RCPP will develop a self-governance assessment for Guam that analyzes Guam's
36 current political status as an unincorporated territory of the United States. A written 37 report compiling the data and findings from the study as well as a powerpoint with 38 deliverables shall be presented to the Commission. The report shall provide a complete
39 political portrait of Guam in its current unincorporated territorial status and shall contain
40 a detailed discussion of the ways in which Guam falls above or below the minimal 41 standards for a self-governing territory. In conducting the study, RCPP shall:

42 i. Research and analyze Guam's current unincorporated territory status by 43 reviewing all available literature and laws related to Guam and other territories, including
44 but not limited to U.S. Government studies, U.S. legislation on the political status
45 evolution of U.S. territories, and United Nations reports and resolutions;

46 ii. Collect from Government of Guam agencies and relevant non-governmental
47 organizations any data necessary to create a complete and in-depth portrait of Guam's 48 current unincorporated status; and

49 iii. Formulate indicators to establish and determine Guam's current level of self-
50 governance relative to the standards mandated by the Charter of the United Nations, 51 General Assembly Resolution No. 1514 (XV), Declaration on the granting of 52 independence to colonial countries and peoples (14 Dec. 1960); and General Assembly
53 Resolution No. 1521 (XV), Establishment of a United Nations Capital Development
54 Fund (15 Dec. 1960).

55 b. RCPP will develop (3) political status models. RCPP shall develop and prepare a
56 draft model that discusses Guam's future under each of the three political status options
57 (Free Association, Independence, and Statehood). The three models shall be based upon 58 what Guam currently has in terms of resources, limitations and advantages, and it shall 59 propose model frameworks of political, social, cultural and economic advancement that 60 are in line with Guam's realities and the direction represented by each political status

61 option.

62 In preparing the draft models, RCPP shall use the data and research gathered in the Self-
63 Governance for Guam study and report, as well as data and findings to be gathered from 64 seven (7) academic studies. RCPP will provide COD with a powerpoint to outline
